ALAN G. MILLER

VICE PRESIDENT

Alan G. Miller began his investment career in 1973 as an investment consultant with an actuarial firm based in Cleveland, Ohio. There Mr. Miller helped a select group of clients monitor and compare investment results, a fiduciary requirement under the ERISA Act of 1974.

In 1980, Mr. Miller began managing investment portfolios for pension and profit sharing clients. Mr. Miller was an early advocate of utilizing mutual funds to design an investment portfolio to meet pre-established investment objectives and goals, while at the same time achieving efficient diversification.

In 1994, Mr. Miller joined The Maxus Investment Group as Vice President and Portfolio Manager. At Maxus, Mr. Miller managed portfolios for individuals along with pension and profit sharing plans. Additionally, Mr. Miller was President and Portfolio Manager of the Maxus Laureate Fund.

After merging with Gelfand Partners in 1997, Mr. Miller was given the additional responsibility of managing a hedge fund. After the sale of Maxus Asset Management to Fifth Third Bank in 2001, Mr. Miller served as a Vice President and Director of the Fifth Third Worldwide Fund.

Mr. Miller has a Bachelors of Science degree in Finance from Ohio State University and an MBA from New York University. At New York University he majored in Corporate Finance and minored in Economics.
